

CYL Prayer

Silver Version:

Dear God,

Thank you for letting us play basketball and have fun together. Please help us be good sports whether we win or lose. Help us play fair and be nice to each other. Please bring peace & blessings to everyone . Amen.

Gold Version:

Dear God,

Thank you for giving us the chance to play basketball and learn new skills. Help us remember that winning isn't everything, and being a good person is more important. Give us the strength to keep trying even when things are tough. Please bring peace & blessings to everyone . Amen.

Platinum Version:

Dear God,

As we finish our game, we want to thank you for the talents you've given each of us. Help us stay humble in victory and strong in defeat. Guide us to show respect to our teammates and opponents alike, and remind us that we're all part of the same team in the end. Please bring peace & blessings to everyone. Amen.

Titanium Version:

Dear God,

As the game ends, we're grateful for the opportunity to compete and grow on the basketball court. Help us to remain humble in victory, and resilient in defeat. Teach us to value sportsmanship and respect our opponents. May our actions on the court reflect the values of teamwork, discipline, and perseverance.

Grant us the wisdom to use the lessons we learn on the court to become better individuals off the court as well. Guide us in showing kindness and support to our teammates, coaches, officials, and fans, recognizing the importance of community and unity in our shared love for the game. Please bring peace & blessings to everyone . Amen.
